

About EACH

EACH is a voluntary sector organisation established in 1991. Working with diverse communities across West London we provide specialist services to individuals and families to address their alcohol, drug, mental health and domestic violence concerns

Equality & Diversity

EACH is committed to equality and diversity and opposed to any form of discrimination

Confidentiality

Any information held on clients will be treated confidentially. This means that unless there is a serious risk to the individual, third party or the community, details will not be disclosed to any other person without prior consent

Concerns and Complaints

We want to make it easier for you to tell us if you have any concerns or comments about the service you have received. All concerns and complaints will be taken seriously and addressed. If you wish to make a complaint, please ask a member of our staff for a complaints leaflet
